Conversion Period

Can be converted to any life insurance policy offered by the company without evidence of insurability, in the level term period (10 years for ART) or to age 75 if earlier. The Wellness for Life® rider is not available.

Re-entry (requires full underwriting)

Term plans have a one-time-only re-entry option at the end of the initial level premium period. At that time, the insured can re-enter the given plan of insurance as long as the maximum issue age for that plan has not been exceeded.

Important guidelines for non-illustrated life insurance

When explaining non-illustrated products:

- Discuss only guaranteed premiums.
- Explain the re-entry provision.
- Tell customers that after the initial level premium period, the premium will increase.
- Don't talk about or show any premiums or coverage period based on non-guaranteed rates.
- Don't offer or imply a price for re-entry.

Waiver of Premium

Description

Premiums due after disability begins will be waived provided the disability lasts at least six months and begins between ages 18 and 65. Disability is defined as the inability to perform one's own occupation for the first 24 months and any occupation thereafter for which one is suited. Benefits, including those premiums currently being waived, cease at age 65.

Issue Ages

18-59 (age nearest birthday)

Premium

Level for the same period as the underlying base plan. Premiums then renew to a yearly renewable term schedule. Premiums cease at age 65.

Benefit

Premiums for the additional insured rider are also waived upon the base insured's disability. Benefits end if the base policy is converted, disability ends, the base insured is age 65 or the additional insured coverage is converted.

Maximum Face

$500,000 ages 18-19
$5 million ages 20-59

Waiver of Premium Plus¹

Description

Premiums due after disability begins will be waived, provided the disability lasts at least six months and begins between ages 18 and 65. While disabled, coverage may be converted to a permanent plan, and premiums will continue to be waived. Upon age 65, the plan will be automatically endorsed as a fully paid-up permanent policy if insured is disabled for at least 5 years (regardless if converted or not). Disability is defined as the inability to perform one's own occupation for the first 24 months and any occupation thereafter for which one is suited.

Waiver Plus benefits are also extended to the additional insured rider if it's included on the policy. Premiums for the additional insured rider are waived if the base insured is disabled. If the additional insured rider is converted to a permanent life contract, premiums on the additional insured's policy continue to be waived as long as the base insured is disabled.

Issue Ages

18-59 (age nearest birthday)
