The Standard reserves the right to require additional financial information on any applications regardless of amount, if necessary to reach an underwriting decision or to secure reinsurance. The Standard also reserves the right to limit or modify the amount of insurance coverage offered regardless of earned income, other financial information or other insurance in force. Two years’ tax returns are required for business owners applying for the Business Owner Upgrade or Business Owner Discount.

- For some occupations The Standard requires documentation of more than one year’s earned income to qualify for an occupation classification. Examples include stockbrokers, real estate agents and insurance producers.
- For bonus or commission to be considered as income, at least two years’ documentation is required.
- To be eligible for employer - paid limits, the premium cannot be included in taxable income and the employee may not reimburse the employer for the premium.
- Up to 20 percent of Section 179 depreciation can be added to the income to allow for an additional benefit of up to $1,000 a month.
